You are invited to a virtual professional development event with Vermont Catholic Professionals on Wednesday, Jan. 20, from 8 to 9 a.m. This free event is open to individuals from all career backgrounds and physical locations.

The guest speaker for this event is Deacon Pete Gummere, a bioethicist and director of the Permanent Diaconate for the Diocese of Burlington. He will be presenting, “Discernment: Family, Career and Service to the Church.” Vermont Catholic Professionals was established in 2018 as a networking group to create fellowship of professionals that also share values of the Catholic faith. The purpose of Vermont Catholic Professionals is to join Catholic men and women and others with shared values from the business and professional communities to encourage intellectual discussions, to foster professional and faith-based relationships and to inspire service and charity to their community.

Speaker Bio: Deacon Pete Gummere

Deacon Pete Gummere is director of the permanent diaconate for the Diocese of Burlington. He is a bioethicist (M.S. in biological science and M.A. in theology; certified in Catholic Healthcare Ethics, National Catholic Bioethics Center). He also did graduate studies in management. He has served on the adjunct faculty at the Pontifical College Josephinum’s Diaconate Institute. He writes, consults and lectures on bioethics-related topics including at the International Colloquium of the International Association of Catholic Bioethicists and at the National Association of Diaconate Directors. He is a member of the National Catholic Bioethicists Center, International Association of Catholic Bioethicists and Catholic Medical Association Guild. Other faculty appointments have been with the New School in New York City, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Springfield College and Community College of Vermont. His primary career was in healthcare management; he served in various non-clinical capacities in Vermont and in the New York City area.

CHALLENGES TO GROW YOUR MARRIAGE

GO FOR A WALK TOGETHER AND HOLD HANDS.

Take time for silence and notice the sounds around you. Once you are inside, sip something warm and share what you noticed. Challenge each other to pray a Hail Mary together every day this week.
